BRINGMETHENEWS WINS BEST RADIO NEWSCAST Eight-Month-Old News Operation Takes Top Prize

MINNEAPOLIS (May 24, 2010) – BringMeTheNews announced today that it was honored with the top award for the best radio newscast in Minnesota at the 2010 Society of Professional Journalism Page One Awards which recognize the best news journalism in Minnesota.

“We have worked incredibly hard since launching in September to build a news operation that can deliver content across several platforms, and this includes the ability to offer radio stations across the state a quality and up-to-date professional newscast,” said Rick Kupchella, founder of BringMeTheNews. “This is a great honor and a testament to our talented and dedicated BringMeTheNews team.”

BringMeTheNews employs a team of more than ten people who gather local Minnesota news from hundreds of online sources and distribute that news through several online and social media sites. In addition, BringMeTheNews produces 16 radio newscasts daily that are heard on a growing list of more than a dozen radio stations across the state including several Clear Channel stations in the Twin Cities, and other stations in Rochester, St Cloud, Brainerd, Bemidji, Marshall and Warroad.

The Minnesota Chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists presented the award Friday, May 21 at the annual Page One awards banquet in St. Paul. The Minnesota chapter presented awards in more than 50 categories to the state’s top print, broadcast and online journalists for their work in 2009. The Society of Professional Journalists, founded in 1909 is the oldest, largest and broadest-based organization of journalists in the U.S.
